Summer Camp

July 15th -17th, 2016:

3-Days of Seminars with Megan Foster, Diana Hoyem & Michael Anderson

Registration NOW OPEN ~ May 21st, 2016 ~

Closes July 1st for working spots, auditing & observer closes the day prior!

Megan Foster is a 2015 European Open Team USA Member, a dog agility National Champion, multiple-time Regional Champion, and multiple-time National finalist. Her handling theories focus on the dog's point of view and how to maintain efficiency and speed throughout an agility course. Megan's supportive coaching style and focus on detail brings a new level of understanding to agility handling. Megan is fresh off, three One Mind Dog seminars and is teaching the One Mind Dog methodology.

Dates and Details:

- ❖ Friday, July 15th: 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM Handle Lines Not Obstacles Instructor: Megan Foster. Learn about your dog's natural path and the best path to take on a course, and how to maximize your dog's speed on those paths. Must be competing at the Open level & above. ~ auditing/ observer available*
- ❖ Friday, July 15th: 3:00 PM – 7:00 PM One Step Commitment Instructor: Megan Foster. Stop following your dog to each obstacle and learn to see your dog say "I've got it!" giving you the ability to leave and make progress further down the course. It is not how fast you run, but how early you leave. Must be competing at the Open level & above. ~ auditing/ observer available & working spots SUNDAY AM TOO!*
- ❖ Saturday, July 16th: 8:30 AM – 12:30 PM Premier/Masters Challenge Coursework Instructor: Megan Foster. This session will focus on challenges seen unique to AKC Premier & USDAA Masters Challenge and how to handle them most efficiently. Must be competing at the Masters level. ~ spots open*
- ❖ Saturday, July 16th: 1:30 PM – 5:30 PM Introduction to the 7 Handling Elements Instructor: Megan Foster. This session will explain the 7 handling elements and how our dogs respond to them on course. Understanding the different handling elements will provide you with clear communication skills between you and your dog! Must be able to work off leash and sequence 3-4 jumps and tunnels. ~ spots open*
- ❖ Saturday, July 16th: 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM Ask the Coach Instructors: Megan, Diana, and Mike. Come join our coaches for a fantastic BBQ dinner and learn the answers to YOUR training questions!
- ❖ Sunday, July 17th: 9:00 AM – 11:00 AM Mental Toughness on Course Instructor: Megan Foster. Prepare your brain for the mental challenges of an agility course. Drills and Games to improve your ability to remember courses, execute your handling plan, and find that underlining "grit" that keeps you in the game! Must be competing at the Open level and above. ~ 1 spot left (note~ this session limited to 4 working teams) ONLY $ 57.50 for this session!*
- ❖ NEW Sunday, July 17th: Approx. 11:15 AM -1:15 PM One Step Commitment Instructor: Megan Foster. Stop following your dog to each obstacle and learn to see your dog say "I've got it!" giving you the ability to leave and make progress further down the course. It is not how fast you run, but how early you leave. Must be competing at the Open level & above. ~ LIMITED to 4 working teams ONLY $ 57.50 for this session!*

- ❖ Sunday, July 17th: 2:00 PM – 6:00 PM Jumping Skills Instructor: Megan Foster. Every dog needs a good jumping foundation and a multitude of skills to be confident on an agility course. Whether you are just starting out in agility, or have been competing for years, jumping skills can always be improved upon. This session will start with the very basics of jump training and build up to more advanced skills that Megan finds essential for every agility dog! Must be 10 months old or older, with a solid recall~ auditing/ observer available*

Diana Hoyem is a trainer who understands how to use positive reinforcement, scientific learning principles & operant conditioning to train dogs. Teaching for over 10 years, she & her border collies live & breathe dog sports. Diana has titled various dogs in Obedience, Tracking, Schutzhund, & Agility. She excels at making dog training fun & exciting for both ends of the leash. She loves to help people train their dogs for performance events using training methods that motivates dogs to want to work and that develop a strong working relationship between handler and dog.

Dates and Details:

- ❖ Friday, July 15th: 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM Engagement Instructor: Diana Hoyem. This session is ideal for teams looking to strengthen their relationship, and develop the skills necessary for motivated and productive training and competing. Open to all teams, puppies as young as 4 months are welcome! ~ spots open*
- ❖ Friday, July 15th: 3:00 PM – 7:00 PM Motivators and Rewards Instructor: Diana Hoyem. This session balanced with discussion and working will cover why your dog might not be motivated for work, and how to build motivation for work through the correct and appropriate use of a variety of rewards. Open to all teams, puppies as young as 4 months are welcome! ~ spots open*
- ❖ Saturday, July 16th: 8:30 AM – 12:30 PM Weaves 101 Instructor: Diana Hoyem. This session is appropriate for dogs that have little to no weave pole training experience. Teams will discuss the process of weave pole training and begin the process of weaving based off of Mary Ellen Barry's 2x2 training method. Must be at least 1-year-old, recall required ~ spots open*
- ❖ Saturday, July 16th: 1:30PM – 5:30 PM Weaves 102 Instructor: Diana Hoyem. This session is appropriate for dogs that can weave 4-6 poles and are looking for ways to improve their speed, independence, or motivation to weave. Must be able to weave 4-6 poles~ spots open*
- ❖ Saturday, July 16th: 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM Ask the Coach Instructors: Megan, Diana, and Mike. Come join our coaches for a fantastic BBQ dinner and learn the answers to YOUR training questions! ~ spots open
- ❖ Sunday, July 17th: 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM Weaves 201 Instructor: Diana Hoyem. This session is appropriate for dogs that can weave 12 poles and are looking for ways to improve their independence on short handling sequences. Must be able to weave 12 poles ~ spots open*
- ❖ Sunday, July 17th: 2:00 PM – 6:00 PM Impulse Control for Agility Dogs Instructor: Diana Hoyem. Good things come to those who wait! The fast paced sport of agility is very exciting for dogs AND humans. Impulse control is one of the most difficult skills to teach and maintain, however, it is one of the most important skills an agility team should have! This session will cover the ground work to amazing start-line stays, stopped contacts, and a controlled table and how you can keep it. ~ spots open

Michael Anderson began training in agility in 1996. He began studying handling techniques and dog's responses to them shortly after becoming involved in agility. He has learned from some of the best agility trainers in the sport. He has been training with Megan for over a year, and has recently joined her team as a Coach at Synergy Dog Sports! He has trained and handled two border collies, one Australian shepherd, and his current border collie Twitch, and has worked with a variety of breeds over the last 20 years! He's a strong believer in anything worth doing is worth doing well and that one should have a whole lot of fun while doing it. He uses that same philosophy in his agility classes.
